

Jade Martin

Associate member (Call Date: 2003)

Jade joined East Anglian Chambers after successfully completing pupillage, having previously worked in Local Government and research positions. An experienced family practitioner, she remains an associate member of chambers while away on extended maternity leave.

