

Mike Sheehan

Barrister (previously a solicitor) (Call Date: 2010)

Mike leads the Family Law Team here at East Anglian Chambers. He has specialised in family law both as a solicitor and barrister. His experience and expertise cover all aspects of family work. He is regularly instructed in financial remedy cases where his straightforward approach, focused advice and negotiating skills are appreciated by clients. He appears in both private and public law Children Act matters in which he receives instructions to represent children and local authorities as well as parents.

Mike is Public Access qualified and is happy to provide advice and representation direct to clients. His lengthy experience as a solicitor ensures that he is well suited to dealing directly with lay clients.

Court and tribunal experience

Mike regularly appears in the Family Court at all levels throughout the region and beyond

Qualifications/Education

LLB - University of Warwick

Certificate in European Community Law - University of Essex

Advanced Certificate in Employment Law - University of East Anglia

Solicitor (1981)

Memberships/Appointments

Family Law Bar Association

Middle Temple

South East Circuit

Legal 500 and other relevant quotations

“The case involved an immense amount of work, but also fine judgment. I just want to put on record that your assistance on this case was invaluable; you were always efficient and clear with your administration and advice. As well as your clear understanding of the law I think you also showed sensitivity to people and especially to a child's needs in such difficult circumstances. I also appreciate your careful handling of the hearings in the High Court."
