

Rachel Dewing

Junior Clerk

Rachel joined East Anglian Chambers in June 2018 after relocating to Norwich. Rachel had previously worked as a joint first junior at Five Paper in Temple.

Rachel primarily works from our Norwich premises, where her responsibilities include diary management, fee negotiation, and advising clients on suitable Counsel for new matters.

Rachel graduated in 2014 from the University of East Anglia with an LLB in Law. She has completed a Public Access Training Course and most recently achieved the BTEC Level 3 Advanced Award in Chambers Administration. She is also a member of the Institute of Barristers' Clerks.

Rachel is currently (as of 15th July 2019) on maternity leave.

Interests

Outside of work, Rachel is busy completing renovations on her house, enjoys socialising with family and friends. Rachel is also a keen dancer, having qualified as a teacher in 2010.
