

Rachel Scarrott

Barrister (Call Date: 2011)

Rachel specialises in Family Law and has a wealth of experience in cases involving:

- Parental alienation
- Controlling and coercive behaviour
- Domestic abuse
- Relocation of children

Rachel is able to accept public access clients in a range of private disputes concerning children.

Rachel is regularly instructed in care proceedings. She acts for Local Authorities, parents and grandparents in all stages of care proceedings, from Emergency Protection Orders through to multi-day Final Hearings.

Court and tribunal experience

Magistrates' Courts, Family (County) Court, Court of Appeal, High Court, Coroner's Court, Crown Court, Parole Boards

Qualifications/Education

The University of Law, London - Bar Vocational Course
University College London - LL.B (2.1)
The Cambridge Partnership - Qualified Teacher Status

What Others Say

"Would recommend to my friends and family"

"A very good barrister"

"Rachel was so supportive"
