

Shona Harvey

Barrister (Call Date: 1999)

Shona is experienced and acts in a wide range of personal injury cases, including fatal accident claims and inquests, acting for claimants and defendants. She has a very thorough approach and focussed attention to detail. Shona worked in the defendant insurance department of Prettys Solicitors before joining East Anglian Chambers

She has a warm, client-friendly manner and is particularly good with anxious and vulnerable clients.

Shona also deals with contract and professional negligence claims and land disputes, especially those concerning rights of way.

Qualifications/Education

LL.B (Hons)
